

Legaldate

Legaldate is written for teachers and students of Legal Studies and senior secondary law-related subjects.

The magazine contains extended articles, prepared by experienced authors and commentators, focusing on a range of relevant and interesting topics. Each issue contains a legal update and a current newspaper article with related questions.

Each edition of Legaldate includes student activities which are developed by practicing economics teachers to provide an up-to-date and readily usable classroom resource. Activities review and apply the concepts and issues raised in the articles. Four issues are published each year. In March, May, July and August.

The articles featured in Legaldate provide discussion and analysis of:

- contemporary legal issues
- new directions and changes in the law
- case studies
- the operation of the legal system

Student activities writers:

- Peter Alderson (Kingswood College)
- Sylvia Constantinidis (All Saints Grammar)
- David Brisset (Firbank Anglican School)
- Lesley Maguire (Patrician Brothers College)
